

Upcoming Seminar...

How To Impress Your Law School Personal Statement

with Christina Chong, a former Admissions Officer from Harvard Law School

This personal statement presentation will cover:

- An introduction to the personal statement format
 - Tips for conveying your passion for the law
- How to effectively display your interest in particular schools
 - How to select the most impactful topic
- The most common personal statement mistakes and how to avoid them

Wednesday, August 5th at 8:00 PM

Check your emails to register for the Zoom Seminar

“

My admissions experiences helped me fully understand what is needed to become a successful applicant and how to craft a strong application, and I have shared that knowledge with many applicants over the years.

- Christina Chong

”